- 1. The People's Courts of Albania are composed of three persons—the president and two members. It is planned that the People's courts also will include a presecutor, who will be a lawyer. The prosecutor will be appointed by the Minister of Justice.
- 2. Special People's Courts have been established which try cases concerning epposition to the regime. These courts consist of five court members appointed by the Workers' Party, in addition to a prosecutor who is not a lawyer, and the court secretary.
